It takes a hurricane to sweep them from their moorings. Like their forefathers, they are deliberate before action, but like an avalanche they are swift to execute. I have long been a resident of the State. I have seen them in hours of trial—in time of peace—in time of war, and I have ever observed them to be lehient, conservative, firm and true; but I am free to confess that I never saw them so deeply moved as in the closing days of the recent canvass. The clash of the civil strife had no eifect upon their nerves. Amid shot and shell they stormed heights and swept over battle plains. They reasoned slowly to their conviction of duty, and they were willing to, and did, die for them. Our people bear no hatred towards the negro race. They recognize the race as a fulcrum of power, past and present, in the development of our material prosperity. They feel grateful to these people; they are attached to them by ties of lasting remembrance. Those of us, who have known them longest, appreciate them most. We neither want nor desire any better, more efficient, more falthful laborers. We neither intend to rob them of any personal rights, nor would we submit to any law tending in that direction. Knowing the race, we know their natures, their great capacity in a subordinate position, and their utter incapacity for self-government. We claim the heritage of self-government was bought at a fearful price with our ancestral blood, and that we have demonstrated our power to keep and defend it.

(Special to Virginian-Pilot.) Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 4.—Raleigh is still rejoicing over the discomforture of the Republican-Populist combine. They were buried beneath the great landslide Thursday, and will never again rally in North Carolina. They are practically dead! dead!! dead!!! A few white Republicans may hereafter get pap in the shape of Federal patronage, and a few slip into State and county offices in the Republican countles, but even these will be few and far between. We have carried the amendment to the constitution which will disfranchise at least 75,000 negroes until they qualify themselves to vote.
We did all these things by a majorty of about 65,000. The official count may either reduce or increase these figures, but not to any great extent.
As said before, the election was very quiet, with the exception of a game of fisticult here and there. No one was seriously hurt.

THE STATE FOR BRYAN.

There was some talk to-day about national politics. This grew out of a rumor that Senator Butler had declared North Carolina's electoral vote should be cast for McKinley. Chairman Simmons said at Democratic head quarters to-night that the State's vote would be cast for Bryan beyond peradventure.

RELLISVED FROM DUTY.

The local military who were ordered on duty Tuesday afternoon by Governor Russell were relieved from duty at 1000 to-day.

BALL WAS PARAMOUNT.

It was rather strange that with politics running as high as it has been here that Thursday night when the returns were coming in baseball ranked over politics. Baseball cranks were wild over the defeat of the Durham by the Raleigh people came to the front, and fully 250 boarded a special train to Durham yesterday afternoon.

The $1.000 was withdrawn when that crowd reached Durham. No rooting had ever been seen there before, and the team won by a score of 1 to 0, and were borne to the deepot on the shoulders of their backers.

INTERESTING BIT OF NEWS.
A very interesting lot of news regarding the appointment of Hon. James Boyd as judge was picked up to-day. It was to the effect that Pritchard expects to be re-elected to the Senate, but that if things ever went against him he was to get this judgeship; that it was the plan, made months ago, that no appointment was to be made until after the August election, perhaps not even until after the November election. But Boyd was put in early. Now the question arises is the Administration "out" with Senator Pritchard or was the appointment made with a "string" to it, so that when Pritchard wants to go in, two years hence, Boyd will retire?

For some days it has been rumored that in their desperation, the Black-and-Tan managers would endeavor to be get some reckless judge to issue some proceeding in the nature of an injunction in order to interfere with or prevent the election.

The election law expressly provides that the judges have no power to issue such process. Even without any statute on the subject the courts have held that the function of election officers acting under statutory provisions cannot be interfered with by injunctions.

The majority is sufficient to satisfy the most extreme opponent of the institution.

As stated, a light vote was polled in the primary, even here in Greensboro, where interest in the subject has been greatest. People who had been very pronounced in their views failed to vote on either side of the question, while some who had declared themselves as favoring one side voted for the other.

selves as favoring one side voted for the other.

In Greensboro the majority against the dispensary is 71; in High Point, 384; North Gilmer township, outside, 156; North Rock Creek, 31; Oak Ridge, 50; South Jefferson, 30. This makes a majority of 702 and will give a fair idea of how the county has gone.

Those who oppose the measure in Greensboro were, of course, highly elated over their victory. They gave vent to their joy and celebrated hilariously. The Gate City Band was employed to furnish music, while the small boys, and some large ones, made the streets resound with the din of the horns. A large crowd of men and boys followed a number of banners and red lights and strained their vocal organs in loud and continuous cheering.

At a late, or rather early, hour the boisterous "antis" dispersed, some of them perhaps to dream of cooling mint juleps and rejuvenating absinthe frappes to be served across bars when the "old days" shall have returned.

BRIEF SKETCH OF HON. CHAS. B. AYCOCK.
Charles Brantley Aycock, who was elected Governor of North Carolina Thursday, is 42 years old, and was Thursday, is 42 years old, and was born in Wayne county.

He was graduated at the University of North Carolina and won there the medal for oratory, a most coveted prize. Mr. Aycock studied law and began to practice at Goldsboro. He held many minor positions, such as county superintendent of education, chairman of the town school board and town and county attorney. Later he was appointed Assistant United States District Attorney and then District Attorney, and was a Presidential elector in 1884, 1888, 1892 and 1896.

Mr. Aycock is considered the best orator in the State. He was nominated for Governor April 11, and made the greatest canvass on record in North Carolina, speaking 111 times, and in all counties except three. He has been married twice, his wives being sisters, Misses Varina and Cora Woodward, of Wilson county, N. C.

We have heavily taxed land and personality to elevate them by education, still they shake in our faces the fist of a welded phalanx—we have accorded them the privileges of our public carriages, and in return they have insulted our women by their defiant obtrusion. This state of affairs could not exist. It meant anarchy and ruin, civil and political. If the tiger cannot be domesticated, he must be caged—the poisonous fangs of a mad socialism must be drawn. Therefore, the people did their duty Thursday in a great upheaval to right a wrong—to lay sure and deep the perpetuity of our blood-bought superiority, and still no harm, but lasting good will result to the inferior race.

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 1, 1900. Hon. J. D. Bellamy:

Raieign, N. C., Aug. 1, 1990,
Hon. J. D. Bellamy:

Sir—You are quoted in the Raleigh morning papers as saying in a speech at Wilmington yesterday that the Democrats should "forcibly expel" me from the State. Do you mean that you feel it your duty to forcibly expel me from the State, or do you meah that some one else should do it? Do you mean that one man should undertake it, or that a cowardly, lawless mob should do it?

Now, if you think I should be expelled from the State, I suggest that you undertake the job yourself. You are one man, and I am one man. If you mean what you say, and have any courage (except when you have a mob of red shirts behind you), I suggest that you proceed to Raleigh and begin the expelling business at once. If you have not the courage to undertake this job, then I suggest that you have the decency to keep your mouth shut.

Respectfully,

MARION BUTLER,

Chairman.

BUTLER GETS ANOTHER.

Members of the New Haven County Democratic Executive Committee sent Senator Butler the following telegram yesterday:
"Wilmington, N. C., Aug. 3, 1900.

Marion Butler, Raleigh:

"In response to call for help, can sup-ply only two anti-amendment pall-bearers for your political obsequies. Please advise place and date. (Signed)"NEW HANOVER COUNTY."

The meaning of this is that only two votes against the amendment were cast in the entire county. There is great rejoicing throughout this section over the signal victory for the amendment. The latest advices here are that the majority in the State will be from 60,000 to 55,000.

NEW BERN.

A NEGRO FOUR HUNDRED YEARS OLD, (Special to Virginian-Pilot.)

Newbern, N. C., Aug. 4.-We have negro named Joseph Williams, working negro named Joseph Williams, working for D. D. Roberts, Democratic nominee for treasurer for this county, who is perhaps (according to the date given by him to the registrar as the year of his birth) the oldest man now living, having been born in 1418—482 years old. He told the registrar that he could prove it by Captain D. L. Roberts, who disclaimed any knowledge. Now, it strikes me that if it should be true, you would like to chronicle such remarkable longevity, and if false the utter incompetency of such as he to exercise the elective franchise.

GRANVILLE COUNTY GIVES BIG DEMOCRATIC MAJORITY. (Special to Virginian-Pilot.)
